The Canadian
WHO'S WHO

NOTICE

This edition, completely revised, presents over 8,375 biographies, approximately 1,280 of which appear for the first time.

SUPPLEMENTARY BOOKLETS

Each Book distributed, is accompanied by a Supplementary Booklet, containing the important changes in biography during the course of printing, and including biographies received too late for insertion in their alphabetical order in the Book. The Booklet ensures substantially correct biography to within ten days before the publication of the edition.

"The Canadian Who's Who" publishes triennially. Between editions, our Biographical Research Department functions continuously in the service of complete reference adequacy.

To fulfil an established demand, four Supplementary Booklets incorporating all the latest changes, together with new biography received, will continue to be issued in six month intervals for two years following our main publication. These Booklets are obtainable at reasonable cost by all subscribers who wish to be kept informed biographically.

EDITORIAL AND SELLING POLICIES

Again we remind our users who expect and appreciate the maintenance of the highest standards in collecting and publishing Canadian contemporary biography, that we are singular in Canada, in that we have never requested or received payment of any kind whatsoever to secure inclusion or exclusion.

No salesman offers our books; the entire selling operation depends upon a mailed prospectus.

A listing is not optional with a biographee; however, all data collected by our research is submitted for correction.

(*died 1960)

We believe the men and women of Canada will heartily join with the Editors in felicitations to a valiant group of Canadians whose contributions to the welfare and culture of Canada, for over fifty years, cannot be denied.

Of course it is true that a "Who's Who" is a collection of concise biography whose yardstick is correctness. The cold blood of history is in its austerity, and a departure from this would seem like literary lèse majesté.

However, as the Editors, we are not entirely impervious to romance, and surely we may be excused, on our fiftieth anniversary, for admitting a note of sentiment to our pages.

So we depart, temporarily, from our impartial routine, to offer congratulations to the only Biographees whose names appeared in the first issue of "The Canadian Who's Who" and in each successive book published from 1910 to 1960.
